

The Pilgrim's Progress
Chapter 13— "The Pilgrims and the Deceitfulness of Riches"
October 1, 2014

Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you are seeking me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal." - John 6:26–27 (ESV)

- II. Hopeful
 - A. What could he have been called prior to his conversion?
 - B. How was he converted?
 - C. What does the word "hopeful" mean?
 - D. Why would Hopeful be "hopeful" after seeing what happened to Faithful and Christian at Vanity Fair?
- III. The Other Characters and Places
 - A. Mr. Byends

"By-ends was so called because he was full of low, mean, selfish motives, and of nothing else. All that this wretched creature did, he did with a single eye to himself. The best things that he did became bad things in his self-seeking hands. His very religion stank in those men's nostrils who knew what was in his heart. By-ends was one of our Lord's whited sepulchres. And so deep, so pervading, and so abiding is this corrupt taint in human nature, that long after a man has had his attention called to it, and is far on to a clean escape from it, he still—nay, he all the more—languishes and faints and is ready to die under it." – Alexander Whyte
