The City of Destruction

MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

John Bunyan's timeless work Pilgrim's Progress powerfully expresses the truth that the present life is a spiritual journey. When Jesus Christ liberates a sinner from the power of sin, He also extends an invitation to a lifetime of discipleship. As we shall see, the path of the Christian life is riddled with many trials, dangers, and obstacles. Yet, the journey to the Celestial City is also laden with displays of God's grace and faithfulness. As we begin our study of Bunyan's masterpiece, Dr. Derek Thomas will direct our attention to the City of Destruction, the starting point for Christian's spiritual journey and ours.

The Wicket Gate

MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

When a person becomes aware of his or her sinfulness and need for a savior, he or she may experience a sudden and dramatic spiritual rebirth. Many Christians today and throughout church history have attested to their lives being instantly transformed through an encounter with Jesus Christ. For others, conversion can be a lengthy process, through which Christ gradually draws a sinner to Himself. Such was John Bunyan's experience, and such is the experience of Christian in Pilgrim's Progress. In this message, we will witness firsthand the dangers and challenges that Christian faces as he treads the path from conviction of sin toward the Savior's arms.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Matthew 7:13-14; Matthew 13:1-9, 18-23

TEACHING OBJECTIVES

1. To illustrate the importance of conviction of sin in the process of repentance and faith.
2. To describe many of the spiritual obstacles that people encounter as they come to understand their need for salvation.
3. To warn against the danger of seeking security in one's own good works.
4. To affirm that salvation and peace with God are only possible through the Person and work of Jesus Christ.

QUOTATION

I thought no man in England could please God better than I. But, poor wretch as I was, I was all this while ignorant of Jesus Christ, and going about to establish my own righteousness; and had perished therein, had not God, in mercy, showed me more of my state of nature.

–John Bunyan

LECTURE OUTLINE

I. The Slough of Despond

- A. As Christian made his way toward the wicket gate, two of his neighbors from the City of Destruction overtook him.
 - i. Obstinate demonstrates the immovable stubbornness of those who are opposed to the gospel.
 - ii. Pliable reveals a fickle readiness to believe anything for a time.
- B. When Obstinate failed to convince Christian to abandon his journey, he returned to the City of Destruction.
- C. For a while, Pliable journeyed alongside Christian.
 - i. Pliable was eager to attain a heavenly inheritance, but he was not burdened by a sense of his own sin.
 - ii. Pliable was like the seed in Matthew 13:20-21 that responded well initially but never took root.
- D. As they journeyed, Christian and Pliable arrived at the Slough of Despond and began to sink in quicksand.
 - i. Because he did not have a burden, Pliable removed himself from the quicksand and returned to the City of Destruction.
 - ii. Weighed down by his burden, Christian sank into the quicksand until Help pulled him out.
- E. Help explained that those who bear a burden like Christian's often fall into the Slough of Despond.
 - i. Though many had attempted to fill in the slough, it remained just as perilous as ever.
 - ii. Nevertheless, the king had constructed stairs in the slough so that pilgrims could find a firm foothold and climb out.

II. The Allure of Morality

- A. As Christian continued toward the wicket gate, he met Mr. Worldly Wiseman.
 - i. Seeing Christian's burden, Worldly Wiseman suggested that he visit the village of Morality.
 - ii. In Morality there lived a man named Mr. Legality, who was skilled at removing burdens such as the one Christian carried.

- B. As he approached the gate, he came within range of arrows being fired from Beelzebub's castle.

- C. The gatekeeper, Goodwill, pulled Christian through the gate to safety.

The Interpreter's House

MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

When a person has been awakened to his or her need for a savior, that person also needs to learn about the fundamental realities of the gospel and the Christian life. As Jesus cautioned in Luke 14:27-33, those who decide to follow Him must carefully count the cost of discipleship. Sadly, many professing Christians do not count this cost, and in time they abandon their pilgrimage. In this message, we will join Christian as he learns important lessons about the perils and rewards of a pilgrim's journey.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Ephesians 6:10-18; Hebrews 6:1-12

TEACHING OBJECTIVES

1. To demonstrate the value of teaching inquirers and new believers about the challenges, complexities, and promises of discipleship.
2. To explain the important spiritual lessons that are conveyed in the different rooms of Interpreter's house.
3. To promote a spirit of humble reliance upon the Person and work of Jesus Christ.
4. To exhort Christ's disciples to work out their salvation with fear and trembling.

QUOTATION

We come tonight to the interpreter's house. And since every minister of the gospel is an interpreter, and every evangelical church is an interpreter's house, let us gather up some of the precious lessons to ministers and to people with which this passage of the Pilgrim's Progress so much abounds.

—Alexander Whyte

LECTURE OUTLINE

I. The Seven Rooms of Interpreter's House

- A. When Christian entered through the wicket gate, Goodwill directed him to call at the house of Mr. Interpreter.
 - i. Part of the church's mission is to teach inquirers and new believers about the way of salvation and the realities of the Christian life.
 - ii. Mr. Interpreter led Christian through his house and showed him spiritual realities that were illustrated in each room.
- B. The first room contained a portrait of a solemn person with a book in his hands and his eyes lifted heavenward.
 - i. This person represents ministers of the gospel who plead with men and women to receive Jesus Christ.
 - ii. Christian has already met people like Evangelist, Help, and Goodwill, who demonstrate this calling.
- C. The second room was full of dust, which could only be removed by washing with water.
 - i. Like a broom stirring up dust, the law stirs up an acute awareness of sin.
 - ii. Though the law reveals the nature and power of sin, a person can only be cleansed through the gospel.
- D. In the third room were two children, who contrasted the discontent of those who seek fulfillment in this life with the steadfast patience of those who await the life of the world to come.
- E. In the fourth room one man was trying in vain to put out a fire that another man was fueling, illustrating Christ's act, amidst spiritual opposition, of sustaining the flame of the gospel in a person's heart.
- F. A battle raged in the fifth room, in which a man in armor, symbolizing the armor of God in Ephesians 6, vanquished many foes.
- G. The sixth room contained a man in an iron cage.
 - i. This man was once a pilgrim like Christian.
 - ii. His heart had become so hardened that he could not repent.
- H. A frightened man in the seventh room had awakened from a dream that depicted God's day of reckoning.

II. A Call to Persevere

- A. The account of the caged man in the sixth room warns believers of the danger of apostasy.
 - i. In the language of Hebrew 6:6, this former pilgrim had despised Jesus Christ and in his heart had crucified him again.
 - ii. The true desire of his heart had been for lusts, pleasures, and worldly profit.
- B. Although we rarely hear sermons about apostasy today, the danger of committing the unforgivable sin was frequently addressed in Bunyan's day.

- i. Today, we tend to associate the unforgivable sin simply with the sin of unbelief.
- ii. Yet, many who profess faith in Jesus Christ and believe themselves to be true pilgrims later reveal that their hearts never truly belonged to Christ.
- iii. In this episode, Bunyan reminds Christians, not to doubt God's electing grace, but to closely examine their own hearts and to work out their salvation with fear and trembling.

STUDY QUESTIONS

1. Who instructed Christian to visit Interpreter?
 - a. Mr. Worldly Wiseman
 - b. Evangelist
 - c. Goodwill
 - d. Help
2. The dust that was stirred up by the broom in the second room represented _____.
 - a. The law
 - b. Spiritual lethargy
 - c. The impatience of this present age
 - d. Spiritual warfare
3. Bunyan employed the image of a man secretly fueling a fire to illustrate Christ's act of preserving His saints.
 - a. True
 - b. False
4. What did Christian see in the sixth room of Interpreter's house?
 - a. A man in an iron mask
 - b. A scene of the day of judgment
 - c. Two children
 - d. A man in an iron cage
5. Due to his belief in God's sovereignty, Bunyan did not believe that apostasy was a real danger for professing Christians.
 - a. True
 - b. False

BIBLE STUDY AND DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What is the significance of Interpreter's house? Why was this an important place for Christian to visit?

2. Which of the rooms in Interpreter's house do you find the most encouraging? How does this room speak to your own experience of the Christian life?
 3. Which room in Interpreter's house do you find most sobering or disturbing? What can Christians learn from this room?
 4. What does it mean for a professing Christian to apostatize? Does this mean that a Christian has lost his or her salvation? What should believers know about apostasy, and how should they respond to those who forsake their earlier profession of faith?

The Cross & the Sepulcher

MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

Many people who have embraced Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord continue to question whether or not they are truly saved. Sometimes this struggle is rooted in intellectual uncertainties. Others may wrestle with their salvation due to the enemy's spiritual attacks or the continued presence of certain sins in their lives. Like many other believers, Christian has continued to be burdened by conviction of his sin. In this message, Dr. Thomas will describe Christian's process of arriving at assurance and examine why it is that Christians can rest upon the saving work of Jesus Christ.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Zechariah 3:1-5; 2 Corinthians 5:21

TEACHING OBJECTIVES

1. To warn against the potent danger of "Easy-Believism."
2. To articulate the biblical doctrines of justification and imputation.
3. To help Christians to understand and experience assurance of salvation.
4. To encourage God's people to celebrate and delight in Christ's redemptive work.

QUOTATION

*Thus far did I come laden with my sin;
Nor could aught ease the grief that I was in Till I came hither: What a place is this!
Must here be the beginning of my bliss?
Must here the Burden fall from off my back?
Must here the strings that bound it to me crack?
Blest cross! Blest sepulchre! Blest rather be
The Man that there was put to shame for me!*

–Christian, free from his burden

LECTURE OUTLINE

I. Deliverance from the Burden

- A. As Christian left the house of Interpreter, the burden on his back still weighed him down.
- B. After climbing uphill, he came upon a cross with a sepulcher, or tomb, somewhat below it.
 - i. When he reached the cross, the burden upon his back suddenly fell from his shoulders.
 - ii. The burden rolled down the hill and disappeared into the sepulcher.
- C. Though this is a joyous moment for Christian, its full significance can be difficult to perceive.
 - i. Many suggest that Christian did not actually become a Christian until he arrived at the cross.
 - ii. Others, including Dr. Thomas, believe that Christian became a Christian when he entered at the wicket gate and received assurance of his salvation at the cross.

II. An Alternative to “Easy-Believism”

- A. In Bunyan’s day and ours, many people embrace the gospel outwardly without experiencing regeneration and inner communion with Christ.
 - i. “Easy-Believism” encourages sinners to trust in Christ’s saving work with little or no regard for his lordship over all of life.
 - ii. In contrast, Christian continued to grapple with the reality of his sin even after his sins had been forgiven.
- B. Bunyan reminds his readers of the need to persevere through trials.

III. Assurance of the Great Exchange

- A. As Christian was freed from his burden, three shining beings gave him assurance of his new identity.
 - i. The first declared that Christian’s sins had been forgiven.
 - ii. The second exchanged Christian’s rags for new clothing.
 - iii. The third placed a mark upon his forehead and gave him a scroll bearing a seal.
- B. The cross stands as a declaration that Christ has atoned for human sin.
- C. The removal of rags depicts God’s act of imputing human sin to Jesus Christ.
 - i. Through His passive obedience, Jesus endured the punishment that sinful humanity deserves.
 - ii. The Father “made him to be sin who knew no sin” (2 Corinthians 5:21a).
- D. The new clothing represents God’s act of imputing the righteousness of Christ to sinners.
 - i. Through His active obedience, Jesus earned a righteous status that God requires but humanity cannot attain.

- ii. We are clothed in the obedience of Christ “so that in him we might become the righteousness of God” (2 Corinthians 5:21b).
- E. The sealed scroll is a symbol of Christian’s assurance of salvation.
 - i. In this scroll, God confirms that Christian’s identity is now found in Him.
 - ii. Such assurance is a treasure both to be delighted in and to be guarded closely.

STUDY QUESTIONS

1. What happened when Christian reached the cross?
 - a. He took off his burden and placed it at the foot of the cross

 - b. Golden ring bearing the king’s emblem
 - c. Bible
 - d. Map of the road ahead
5. God’s elect can lose assurance of salvation, but not salvation itself.
 - a. True
 - b. False

BIBLE STUDY AND DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. When did Christian become a Christian? Do you agree or disagree with Dr. Thomas? Why is this timing significant?
2. What is “Easy-Believism?” Why is this approach to faith dangerous? How does John Bunyan address the threat of “Easy-Believism” in Pilgrim’s Progress?

3. What is the difference between the active obedience of Christ and the passive obedience of Christ? Why are both of these crucial to God's redemptive work?
 4. What does it mean to have assurance of salvation? How can a person have such assurance? How can assurance of salvation change a person's life?

5

The Hill Difficulty

MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

Though the Christian journey often contains unique moments of joy and closeness to God, day to day life can challenge a believer's zeal, joy, and sense of purpose. After his powerful arrival at the cross, Christian's journey brings him into contact with people who do not share the same gospel-centered focus that he has. As we turn our attention to this phase in Christian's pilgrimage, we will take note of several dangers and pitfalls that threaten to undermine believers in their spiritual journey.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

2 Corinthians 13:5; Romans 8:28-39

TEACHING OBJECTIVES

1. To warn against the dangers of spiritual apathy and sloth.
2. To emphasize the importance of giving one's heart completely to Christ.
3. To describe the possibility of losing assurance of salvation.
4. To promote among Christians a greater resolve to make their calling and election sure.

QUOTATION

If you have assurance of your justification, do not abuse it. It is abusing assurance when we grow more remiss in duty; as the musician, having money thrown him, leaves off playing. By remissness, or intermitting the exercises of religion, we grieve the Spirit, and that is the way to have an embargo laid upon our spiritual comforts.

—Thomas Watson

LECTURE OUTLINE

I. The Need to Persevere

- A. When Christian left the foot of the cross, he came upon three sleeping men named Simple, Sloth, and Presumption.
- B. When Christian awakened the sleepers and warned them of potential danger, they responded with sleepy indifference.
- C. This interaction illustrates the significance of persevering in the faith.
 - i. Christians ought to examine themselves regularly to discern the state of their hearts (2 Corinthians 13:5).
 - ii. Yet, Christians can also find rest in God's promise that He will never relinquish His claim on His people (Romans 8:28-39; Philippians 1:6).

II. The Need to Engage the Heart

- A. After leaving Simple, Sloth, and Presumption behind, Christian met two other travelers on the road.
 - i. Considering it impractical to enter the road at the wicket gate, these men had climbed over the wall beside the road.
 - ii. Formalist and Hypocrisy expressed an interest in saving religion but substituted their own ideas for God's truth.
 - iii. As their names and actions indicate, these two men were not true pilgrims.
- B. Formalist possessed a form of godliness but denied its power (2 Timothy 3:5).
 - i. Writing in the repressive days of Charles II, Bunyan was imprisoned for defying the religious establishment by preaching without legal authorization.
 - ii. In his critique of formalism, Bunyan likely had in mind the complacency of those who participated in the outward rigors of ceremonial religion without a worshipful heart.
- C. While Formalist perhaps had some measure of faith, Hypocrisy did not.
 - i. Like many in Bunyan's day and today, Hypocrisy's religiosity was an outward show.
 - ii. As Christian suggested, Hypocrisy's true nature would be revealed on the day of judgment.

III. The Need for Continued Assurance

- A. As they walked, Christian, Formalist, and Hypocrisy drew near to a large hill called Difficulty.
- B. Though the other two stayed at the bottom, Christian made his way up the hill until he paused at an arbor built for weary pilgrims.
 - i. Christian rested at the arbor and gained encouragement by reading from his scroll.
 - ii. Christian drifted off to sleep and awoke several hours later.
- C. Eager to make up for lost time, Christian hastily climbed to the top of the hill before he realized that he had left his assurance scroll behind.

- D. In a panic and overcome by guilt and fear, Christian returned to the arbor and recovered his scroll.

STUDY QUESTIONS

1. As he continued on his journey, Christian saw three men named _____.
 - a. Pliable, Obstinate, and Presumption
 - b. Sloth, Sleep, and Slumber
 - c. Laziness, Glutton, and Excess
 - d. Simple, Presumption, and Sloth
2. In spite of all his efforts, Christian could not awaken the three sleepers from their slumber.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. How did Christian meet Formalist and Hypocrisy?
 - a. They were enjoying a lavish feast beside the road
 - b. They climbed over the wall and joined him on the road
 - c. They saw him struggling to climb the hill and helped him
 - d. They had been guests at Interpreter's house
4. Formalist and Hypocrisy tried to persuade Christian to abandon his journey.
 - a. True
 - b. False
5. What happened when Christian reached the top of the hill?
 - a. He sat down and read from his scroll
 - b. He fell asleep
 - c. He realized that he had lost something of great value
 - d. A man named Kindness brought him cool water to drink

BIBLE STUDY AND DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Where did Christian meet the three sleeping men? Why is this surprising? What can we learn from the three sleepers?
2. What was the religious situation in England like during Bunyan's lifetime? How might characters like Formalist and Hypocrisy reflect people that Bunyan would have known? In what ways do these tendencies appear in the church today?
3. What is the significance of the hill known as difficulty? What kinds of hills have you experienced that have challenged you as a Christian?
4. What does Christian's slumber in the arbor represent? How does this sort of spiritual "sleep" affect a person's sense of assurance?

6

The Palace Beautiful

MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

Amidst the challenges and difficulties of the Christian journey, it is important to remember that we are not solitary travelers. After Christian experienced setbacks on the hill Difficulty, his road led him to a place where he found rest, refreshment, and the encouragement of spiritual community. In this message, Dr. Thomas will explain what this segment of Christian's journey can teach us about the church of Jesus Christ and its importance in the lives of God's people.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Matthew 16:18; Ephesians 2:11-22

TEACHING OBJECTIVES

1. To describe the corporate dimension of the Christian life.
2. To discuss the nature and outcome of the church's spiritual warfare.
3. To express the significance of God-centered fellowship and conversation.
4. To encourage Christians to invest in meaningful relationships with other Christians and to cultivate a greater love for Christ's church.

QUOTATION

Why, there I hope to see Him alive that did hang dead on the cross; and there I hope to be rid of all those things that to this day are in me an annoyance to me: there they say there is no death; and there I shall dwell with such company as I like best. For, to tell you the truth, I love Him because I was by Him eased of my burden; and I am weary of my inward sickness. I would fain be where I shall die no more, and with the company that shall continually cry, 'Holy, holy, holy.'

–Christian

LECTURE OUTLINE

I. A Place of Beauty

- A. When Christian returned to the top of the hill after finding his lost scroll, he spied a stately palace in the distance and sought shelter there during the night.

 - ii. John Bunyan shared a deep love for the church, and he uses this portion of the story to impart to his readers a deeper understanding of the church.

II. Satanic Resistance

- A. Throughout history, the church has been engaged in spiritual warfare.
 - i. On his way to the palace, Christian had to pass by two lions, which had already frightened away the pilgrims Timorous and Mistrust.
 - ii. By referring to two lions, Bunyan was perhaps describing the opposition he had experienced both from the state and from the Church of England.
- B. Though Satan's power opposes Christ's disciples, He cannot prevail over them.
 - i. At the palace door, the porter informed Christian that these lions, though fierce, were chained and could not harm him.
 - ii. Though the devil may roar and threaten, his power and access are limited.

III. The Gift of Overseers

- A. As the overseer of the palace, the porter represents the elders and ministers through whom Christ governs His church.
- B. When the porter asks Christian about himself, Christian tells the porter of his descent from the line of Japheth.
 - i. Bunyan alludes to Noah's pronouncement in Genesis 9:27.
 - ii. Bunyan also draws attention to the spread of the gospel to the Gentiles, a work accomplished through the work of pastors, missionaries, and evangelists (Romans 10:14-15).
- C. As Christian discovered, the church is also a place where believers can share their stories with one another, praising God for His work in their lives.

IV. Spiritual Refreshment

- A. The people of the house enjoyed rich spiritual conversation, which directed Christian's thoughts and feelings toward the king that he was on his way to meet.

The Valley of Humiliation

MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

In the wake of Satan's rebellious struggle against God's rule, Christians do not remain neutral. As soon as a person is united by faith to Jesus Christ, he or she has become a potential target of the Enemy's spiritual attacks. At times these attacks can be direct and apparent, and sometimes they are carried out through subtlety and trickery. By being firmly grounded in the gospel of Jesus Christ and by putting on the full armor of God, Christians can be armed and equipped to withstand the Devil's onslaughts.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Ephesians 6:10-18; Romans 8:31-39

TEACHING OBJECTIVES

1. To show how the cosmic battle between God and Satan affects believers.
2. To promote a greater awareness of the Devil's weapons and tactics.
3. To encourage Christians to prepare themselves for spiritual battles.
4. To remind pilgrims that in Jesus Christ our battles are already won.

QUOTATION

Grant, Almighty God, since thou hast formerly admonished thy servants, that thy children, while they are pilgrims in this world, must be familiar with horrible and cruel beasts, if the same thing should happen to us, that we may be prepared for all contests. May we endure and overcome all temptations, and may we never doubt thy desire to defend us by thy protection and power, according to thy promise. May we proceed through the midst of numberless dangers, until after accomplishing the course of our warfare, we at length arrive at that happy rest which is laid up for us in heaven by Christ our Lord.

–John Calvin

The Valley of the Shadow of Death

MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

After Christian left the Valley of Humiliation, his path led him to an even darker and more foreboding place. This is often the case in the Christian life, as one period of difficulty may follow another. In these times, Christians can be particularly vulnerable to temptation, discouragement, and spiritual desolation. Yet, God will not desert His people in the valley. As Christian learned, God's faithfulness often is revealed most poignantly in the midst of doubt and hardship.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Psalm 23:1-6

TEACHING OBJECTIVES

1. To describe the spiritual dangers of the valley of the shadow of death.
2. To discuss trials and temptations that Christians experience in the valley.
3. To emphasize the need for Christian fellowship during spiritual trials.
4. To encourage Christians to rejoice in God's faithfulness and deliverance from evil.

QUOTATION

Though this valley is thus gloomy, dangerous, mysterious and solitary, yet it is often traversed. Many more go by this road than some people dream. Among those who wear a cheerful countenance in public there are many who are well acquainted with this dreary valley—they have passed through it often—and may be in it now.

—Charles Spurgeon

LECTURE OUTLINE

I. The Dangers of the Valley

- A. While one might have expected Christian to enjoy a period of tranquility and rest after his battle against Apollyon, this was not the case.

 - ii. In spite of the dangers that lay ahead, Christian was determined to reach the Celestial City, even if the road ahead was dangerous.

 - iii. The more spiritual our duties and challenges are, the more spiritual our resources need to be.

- B. As the sun began to rise, Christian looked back and saw the dangerous terrain though which God had led him.

The Godless City: Vanity Fair

MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

Christian has withstood spiritual warfare against the foul Apollyon, and he has safely traversed the Valley of the Shadow of Death. While the dangers behind him were apparent, some dangers are less obvious. Though Vanity Fair may not be known for dark shadows or vicious beasts, its seductive temptations and violent opposition to the king will make it one of the most perilous places that Christian has visited in his travels.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Proverbs 4:23; John 16:33

TEACHING OBJECTIVES

1. To illustrate the importance of spiritual companionship amidst adversity.
2. To describe the temptation to forsake God in the pursuit of vanity.
3. To discuss ways in which godliness differs from worldliness.
4. To exhort Christians to stand firm in times of trial and persecution.

QUOTATION

Grant, Almighty God, that we may remember ourselves to be pilgrims in the world, and that no splendor of wealth, or power, or worldly wisdom may blind our eyes, but may we always direct our eyes and all our senses towards the kingdom of thy Son. May we always fix them there, and may nothing hinder us from hastening on in the course of our calling, until at length we pass over the course and reach the goal which thou hast set before us.

–John Calvin

LECTURE OUTLINE

I. Christian Camaraderie

- A. Once Christian had emerged from the Valley of the Shadow of Death, he caught up with Faithful, the other pilgrim who had been in the valley.
- B. In Faithful, Christian found much-needed companionship and encouragement for the journey.

 - ii. The close friendship between Christian and Faithful, in spite of their differences, illustrates the unity and beauty of the church.
- C. As they traversed the countryside, Faithful and Christian were joined by the verbose Talkative.
 - i. Though his words were outwardly devout, Talkative revealed a lack of inner maturity and depth.
 - ii. Uncomfortable with Christian and Faithful's conversation, Talkative parted ways with them.
- D. The pilgrims were then joined by Evangelist, who warned them of the dangers that awaited them in Vanity Fair.

 - i. In ancient times, Apollyon, Beelzebub, and Legion had established this fair on the path to the Celestial City.
 - ii. The fair was always open for business, and it sold every kind of good imaginable.
- B. Vanity Fair represents the snare of worldliness.
 - i. The things for sale at the fair were not evil, but part of God's good creation.
 - ii. Yet, the human heart tends to idolize creation rather than the Creator.
 - iii. Instead of loving the world God has made in a God-honoring way, worldliness dismisses God in the pursuit of material goods and pleasures.
- C. Bunyan's depiction of Vanity Fair was not intended to belittle the good things of this life, but to depict the distinction between worldliness and spiritual mindedness in a visual form.

III. A Costly Witness

- A. As Christian and Faithful walked through the fair, they stood out in several ways.
 - i. Because their clothing was different, they were viewed as being foolish, insane, and outlandish.
 - ii. The heavenly nature of their speech sounded foreign to the ears of the people of the fair.
 - iii. They were not interested in purchasing any of the wares that were for sale and even covered their ears to resist the temptation around them.

- B. Considered to be troublemakers because they valued truth above the enticements of the fair, the pilgrims were beaten and placed in a cage.
 - i. Because of their gracious conduct amidst adversity, many of the townspeople were won over.
 - ii. However, the potent witness of these men further enraged most of the townspeople.
- C. The leaders of the town brought the pilgrims to trial before Lord Hate-good.
 - i. Faithful, who took a vocal stand against the evils of the fair, was accused of violating the ancient laws of the town.
 - ii. The jury unanimously found Faithful guilty and put him to death.
- D. As Faithful became a martyr, a chariot carried him through the clouds to the celestial gate.

The Delectable Mountains

MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

Though God's people are often called to walk difficult paths, God is faithful to supply moments of rest in order to strengthen and sustain His pilgrims. After enduring numerous hardships and trials, Christian and Hopeful at last arrive in the Delectable Mountains, a place of safety and spiritual refreshment. As they prepare for the final phase of their journey, the shepherds of the mountains equip the pilgrims with both encouragement and clear warnings of the dangers that still confront them.

SCRIPTURE READING

Psalm 84:1-12

TEACHING OBJECTIVES

QUOTATION

O Lord most high, O God eternal, all whose works are glorious, and whose thoughts are very deep: there can be no better thing than to praise thy name and to declare thy loving-kindness in the morning, on thy holy and blessed Sabbath day!

–Lewis Bayly

LECTURE OUTLINE

- I. The Pattern of the Lord's Day
 - A. Having safely returned to the true path, Christian and Hopeful arrived at the Delectable Mountains.

- i. Christian had seen these mountains in the distance when he was at the Palace Beautiful.
 - ii. These mountains belonged to the king, and from them a person could see the gate of the Celestial City.
 - iii. Though some suggest that these mountains represent spiritual maturity, there is also reason to suppose that Bunyan is once more describing the church and the blessings that come to God's people through the church.
- B. As was the case with most of the Puritans, the Lord's Day occupied an important place in Bunyan's theology.
 - i. Following the Sabbath pattern of the Old Testament, the Puritans emphasized the importance of setting apart one day in seven for the worship of God.
 - ii. John Gere described this day as a "market day of the soul," when a person could obtain much-needed spiritual nourishment.
 - iii. Rather than thinking of the Lord's Day as a burden, the Puritans considered it a day to be anticipated and enjoyed.

II. The Provision of Godly Leaders

- A. As they ascended the Delectable Mountains, Christian and Hopeful met four shepherds named Knowledge, Experience, Watchful, and Sincere.
- B. As they fed the flock, these shepherds explained to the pilgrims that the sheep belonged to Emmanuel and that he laid down His life for them.
 - i. Though the sheep belonged to the king, it was the responsibility of the shepherds to feed and protect them.
 - ii. As a pastor, Bunyan was deeply aware of the importance of Godly leadership in the church.

III. The Perseverance of the Saints

- A. Throughout Christian's journey, there have been numerous warnings about the perils that await unwary pilgrims.
- B. The shepherds led Christian and Hopeful to the top of a hill called Error.
 - i. The hill sloped gradually upward on one side, but there was a steep cliff on the other side where others had fallen.
 - ii. This hill was a warning against those who, like Hymenaeus and Philetus, were in danger of forsaking the gospel by falling into error (2 Timothy 2:17-18).
- C. The shepherds then led the pilgrims to the top of a hill called Caution, where they could see other travelers who had been captured and blinded by Giant Despair.
- D. The shepherd showed them a door in the hillside which led directly to Hell.
 - i. Even travelers who had completed most of the journey to the Celestial City had passed through this door and on to judgment.
 - ii. Once more, Bunyan is warning his readers of the danger of making a false profession of faith and of showing outer signs of piety without having truly been born again.

- E. After seeing these grave warnings, Christian and Hopeful also saw something which gave them hope.
 - i. Looking through the perspective glass, they beheld in the distance the gate of the Celestial City.

A New Journey Begins

MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

After a follower of Jesus has departed from this life, God may continue to use his or her influence to change the lives of others. Even those whose hearts were once hardened against the gospel can later be softened by the memory of a believer's testimony and the regenerating work of the Holy Spirit. In this message, we will turn our attention to the wife and children that Christian left behind when he began his pilgrimage to the Celestial City. Though they were once hostile to Christian's faith, their attitudes have changed since his departure.

The Trek to the Palace

MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

Though no two Christians have identical spiritual biographies, there are often points of similarity in the stories and experiences of believers. As Christiana, Mercy, and the children follow the same route that Christian walked earlier, they continue to encounter many of the same people and landmarks on their way to the Palace Beautiful. By describing numerous changes and developments that have taken place since Christian's journey, Bunyan conveys important insights about the life of a pilgrim.

2. To emphasize the importance of sound doctrine for spiritual warfare.

 - ii. At the foot of the hill Difficulty, the spring where Christian had found refreshment had since been contaminated by the king's enemies.
 - iii. The false paths that Formality and Hypocrisy had followed had been blocked off, but they were still taken by travelers who did not want to ascend the hill.
- C. Halfway up the hill, the travelers stopped at the prince's arbor to rest.
 - i. Learning from Christian's misfortune, they did not fall asleep.

II. At the Hilltop

- A. As the pilgrims drew near to the palace, they had to contend with the same lions that had frightened Christian.

- B. Though the lions themselves were chained, an evil giant named Grim barred the pilgrims' path.
 - i. Also known as "Bloody-man," Grim had a reputation for killing pilgrims.
 - ii. Great-heart drew his sword and killed Grim in battle.

3. What happened to both Christian and Christiana on their way up the hill Difficulty? What danger does this represent for your own experiences of difficulty?
4. Great-heart returned to Interpreter because the pilgrims had not asked him to stay with them earlier. Similarly, Christians do not always ask God for things that are important to them. 1. In contrast to part 1, many of the pilgrims remained on the other side of the river for a long time before crossing over to the Celestial City. Why would Bunyan end the story in this way? What does this element of the story say about the calling of Christians in this present life?

3. Which of the characters in this story do you most identify with? How has God used this study to teach you more about yourself and your own journey of faith?
4. If God were to call you to go to Him now, would you be ready?
